

DO NOT MISS! FERMENTIS JUST LAUNCHED A NEW APP FOR BREWERS!

The world of fermentation is now a click away.

Fermentation is an art that has been developed by Fermentis with passion, aiming to always improve taste and pleasure in the beverages industry. That's why Fermentis has designed a new app to advise all brewers, from Home to Craft and help them to create THE beer they are dreaming of. Supporting and creative tools have been gathered in this new application, already available on Apple store and Google play.

Brewers will also find information about Fermentis.

What can we find in it ?

Supporting and creative tools:

- Converters (Volume, temperature, weight, density, ...)
- Yeast advisor according to the type of beer needed
- ABV & attenuation calculator
- Make Your Choice
- Refermentation calculator
- And many more tools to come!

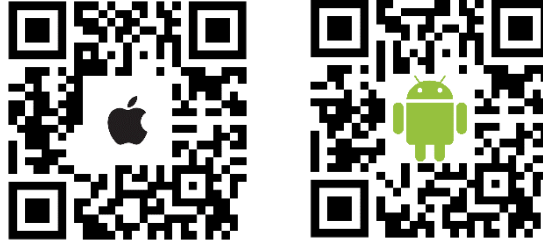

Fermentis information:

- Technical data about yeasts and yeast products
- Geo-localization map of all the distributors, including details such as email, phone number, ...
- The different Fermentis brands: E2U™, Fermentis Academy
- News regularly updated
- Contacts, social networks

By creating an account, brewers have also the possibility to enter the premium fermentation world with more tips and tools available!

Available on Apple store and Google play.

Download it below by opening you camera app.
